

PeproTech Cookies Policy – PeproTech EC LTD

Our website www.peprotech.com (the "Website") uses cookies and other device identifying technologies ("Cookies") to understand how our Website is used, and for marketing purposes, as explained in our Privacy Policy. You can read more about the types of cookies we use, why we use them and how you can exercise your cookies choices below.

What are cookies?

A cookie is simply a piece of text, which can be placed on the browser of your personal computer or mobile device and subsequently read as you visit a website. A cookie may be a 'session cookie' or 'temporary cookie' that is, a cookie that remains on your browser while you are logged on to a particular website and then disappears when you close your browser. Alternatively, it may be a 'persistent cookie'; a cookie that remains on your browser over a period of time. For example, they recognise your device when you open your browser and browse the internet again.

Information from a cookie may be collected and used in aggregate form.

We use cookies and similar technologies to enhance the online experience of our visitors and to better understand how the Website is used. These technologies are used in analysing trends, administering the site, tracking users' movements around the site and to gather demographic information about our user base as a whole. We may receive reports based on the use of these technologies on an individual as well as aggregated basis. Cookies may tell us whether you have visited the Website before or whether you are a new visitor. We also use cookies to maintain authentication information and to maintain persistent connections across our distributed infrastructure. If you reject cookies, you may have limited features or functionality on our Website.

There are different types of cookies, for example:

Cookies served directly by PeproTech ('first party cookies') and cookies served on our behalf, for example, by data analytics companies ('third party cookies').

Which cookies do we use and why do we use them?

The following table sets out the different categories of cookies that the Website uses and why we use them.

| Cookie | Name | Purpose |
|------------------------------|----------------------------------|--|
| Universal Analytics (Google) | __g* | These cookies are used to collect information about how visitors use our website. We use the information to compile reports and to help us improve the website. The cookies collect information in an anonymous form, including the number of visitors to the website, where visitors have come to the website from and the pages they visited. Read Google's overview of privacy and safeguarding data |
| CloudFlare | __cf* | Anonymous cookies that allow visitors to navigate around our Site, use its features and access secure areas. The information gathered by these cookies may be used for security purposes, but is not used for marketing purposes. If the use of this type of cookies is not allowed, our Site cannot be used. Read CloudFlare's overview of privacy and safeguarding data |
| PeproTech Customer | nop.customer nopcommerce.auth | This cookie identifies a logged-in customer and is valid for this session only. |
| Security | requestverificationtoken | Used for security, does not track users and is anonymous. |

Analytics / log files

As is true of most websites, we gather certain information automatically and store it in log files. This information may include Internet protocol (IP) addresses, browser type, internet service provider (ISP), referring/exit pages, operating system, date/time stamp, and/or clickstream data.

We may combine this automatically collected log information with other information we collect about you. We do this to improve services we offer you, or to improve marketing, analytics, or site functionality.

We use mobile analytics software to allow us to better understand the performance of the website. This software may record information such as how often you use the website, the events that occur within the website, aggregated usage, and performance data. We do not link the information we store within the analytics software to any information you submit through the website.

How can you exercise your cookies choices?

You have the right to choose whether or not to accept cookies. However, they are an important part of how our Website works, so you should be aware that if you choose to refuse or remove cookies, this could affect the availability and functionality of the Website.

If you don't want the Website to use cookies, please follow the instructions in the table above and below.

Browser Opt-Out:

Most browsers accept cookies by default. You may be able to change the settings to have your browser refuse certain cookies or notify you before accepting cookies. To do so, please follow the instructions provided by your browser which are usually located within the "Help", "Tools" or "Edit" facility.

For further information about cookies, including how to see what cookies have been set on your device and how to manage and delete them, please visit www.allaboutcookies.org and www.youronlinechoices.eu.
